Interested in Non-Hodgkin Lymphoma ?

Is a Telephone Support Group right for you ?

A Telephone Support Group IS:
a chance to connect with other non-Hodgkin patients to share your questions, concerns, hopes & strategies for managing the cancer journey.

It IS confidential

You CAN participate in the comfort of your own home

You DO NOT have to fight traffic or find a parking spot

It IS NOT psychotherapy

Topics to be covered may include: practical tactics for living with uncertainty; working with your healthcare team; challenges & successes with sharing your experience with family & friends; practical solutions for day-to-day coping & how my diagnosis has changed my outlook/approach to life.

Sessions will be led by Sally Drescher, LICSW

2002 UW School of Social Work Graduate; led oncology support groups at NW Medical Specialties in Puyallup. Member of LLS Patient Services Committee

Join us from 9:00 – 10:00 am for 6 Saturday conversations

4/26, 5/3, 5/10, 5/17, 5/24 & 5/31 (2008)

A commitment for all 6 sessions is requested.

Participants will dial a toll free number & join in a conference call. Participants are free to share information, ask questions or simply listen. Information disclosed is at the participant's discretion & will remain confidential among others involved in the call.

To register contact Ann Crickmer, MSW, Patient Services Manager of The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society @ 206-957-4583 or 1-888-345-4572 x123. Please register by April 24th.
